In Belgium and Luxembourg, the guide's influence extends beyond mere recognition; it impacts restaurant patronage, chef careers, and local gastronomic identity.

Belgium, with its rich tradition of culinary innovation and regional diversity, has seen an increasing number of establishments gain international acclaim. Luxembourg, although smaller, has developed a burgeoning fine-dining scene, often blending French sophistication with local flavors. The 2018 edition captures these trends, reflecting both the region's heritage and evolving gastronomic ambitions.

The Evaluation Methodology of the 2018 Edition

Understanding the guide's assessments requires insight into its meticulous methodology, which remains largely consistent year over year. Michelin inspectors, anonymous and highly trained, conduct multiple visits to each restaurant over several months. Their evaluations focus on several core criteria:

- Quality of the ingredients: Freshness, seasonality, and sourcing.
- Mastery of flavor and cooking techniques.
- Personality of the chef represented in the cuisine.
- Value for money.
- Consistency across visits.

The guide awards stars, which are the most recognizable symbols:

- One Star: A very good restaurant in its category.
- Two Stars: Excellent cooking worth a detour.
- Three Stars: Exceptional cuisine worth a special journey.

In addition to stars, the guide also recognizes Bib Gourmand establishments (good quality, good value) and plate symbols for noteworthy establishments.
