At KS1, diary entries are designed to be accessible, engaging, and developmentally appropriate, laying the groundwork for more complex forms of writing in later years.

Core Features of a KS1 Diary Entry

A typical diary entry in KS1 incorporates specific features that distinguish it from other writing genres. These features serve both functional and educational purposes, ensuring that young learners grasp the concept of personal recounts while practicing essential writing skills.

1. Personal Perspective and First-Person Narrative

One of the defining features of a diary entry is its use of the first person. Children are encouraged to write from their own point of view, using pronouns like "I" and "my." This personal perspective makes the writing authentic and relatable.

Example:

Today, I went to the park with my friends. We played on the swings and had a picnic.

2. Use of Date and Time References

A typical KS1 diary entry begins with the date, often including the day of the week, to situate the reader in time. Sometimes, children also mention the time or specific moments within the day.

Features include:

- Possible mention of time or sequence (e.g., "In the morning," "Later on")

3. Chronological Structure

Diary entries usually follow a chronological order, recounting events as they happened. This logical sequencing helps children understand narrative flow and recounting skills.

At KS1, sentence structures are typically straightforward. Children use simple sentences, often with a subject and verb, and basic punctuation such as full stops and capital letters.
